

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Position: Lab Instructor – EMT Full Course, Temporary Part-time
Location: Bozeman, MT
Pay: $13.00 - $15.00 / hr DOE
Date Available: November, 2016
Open: Until filled

Duties & Responsibilities: Under supervision of course director and/or lead instructor, the Lab Instructor will set up, instruct, and break down practical learning stations, maintain equipment and supplies, and formally evaluate the EMT candidate's progress toward psychomotor and affective objectives.

Minimum Qualifications: valid NREMT issued EMT certification and Montana EMT License for at least 6 months.

Preferred Qualifications: active responder at licensure level, previous EMT full course instruction, previous teaching experience, formal education in adult learning

Working Conditions: Work is performed in both indoor and outdoor conditions in a non-smoking environment. Requires lifting up to 70 pounds and carrying objects up to 50 pounds. Classroom and laboratory environments must be maintained in clean condition.

To Apply: Download, complete, and submit application packet at www.bestpracticemedicine.com . All submitted applications must include a cover letter and a complete application with three professional references.

Best Practice Medicine reserves the right to cancel, change, or close any advertised position at any time.